Cincinnati Expedited Delivery Services

Redkey Express, a family owned and operated expedited delivery service, was founded in 2001 by Jim Redkey. Jim's 30 plus years in the transportation industry gave him a sense of customer's true needs – provide a guaranteed, immediate shipping service with efficiency and excellence in customer service. Today, Brian Gray, son of Lee and Jim Redkey, owns and operates Redkey Express continuing the same excellence in delivery services.

The company, based in Cincinnati, Ohio, specializes in ground freight shipped direct in same day and next day deliveries for the Queen City region and all states beyond. The operation is simple: we pick up when you want, where you want and deliver to whom you want. Our focus is immediate response time with our team of professional drivers prepared to move at your command. They are qualified and trained with the necessary supplies and equipment to complete the delivery from start to finish. Whether it's an envelope, pallet, several skids or a full semi-trailer load, we are small enough to listen and big enough to deliver.

Redkey Express can make a winning impact on your business with our positive attitude and professional approach.

Players to Watch

2023 Game Analysis

Friday: Dec. 1

5:30 Crispus Attucks (IN) vs Withrow

Withrow is coming off a 16-6 year and Coach Berdo Allen is looking to bring the Tigers back to their glory days in the Cincinnati Metro Conference. The Tigers feature 6'6" sophomore Chris Henry Jr. who has verbally committed to play football at Ohio State. 6'6" senior Michael Johnson is receiving interest from D-1 colleges. Another 6'6" junior, Myles Rochelle, gives the Tigers great length. Freshman DeMarcus Henry is already receiving interest from Division I schools. Crispus Attucks is the home of Oscar Robertson. Coach Chris Hawkins squad finished 18-8 last season in one of the toughest regions in Indiana. Dezmon Briscoe, a 6'9" junior has offers from Iowa, Cincinnati, Butler and other Division I schools. 6'2" senior guard Ron Rutland has committed to University of Indianapolis. Senior guard Mason Lewis is a Division II prospect. Juniors Chris Hurt and Julian Norwood are both college prospects. This will be an entertaining, athletic matchup between two evenly matched teams. Both teams are making their first appearance in the Ohio Valley Hoops Classic.

7:00 Newport (KY) vs Richmond Heights

This is a matchup of two teams whose sights are set on a state championship. It also features multiple Division I prospects. Richmond Heights has won 49 consecutive games, including the last two Division IV state championships in Ohio. Many observers feel Coach Quentin Rogers' team is Ohio's most talented regardless of Division. The Spartans feature 4 players already owning Division I offers. Five star 6'8" sophomore T.J. Crumble, along with 6'4" junior guard Dorian Jones both own offers from Ohio State and Cincinnati along with multiple others. Junior guards De'Erick Barber and Demarris Winters both have numerous mid-major offers. Coach Rod Snapp's Newport Wildcats were Ninth Region champs in Kentucky last year, and return the star power to win the whole show this year. Sophomore guard Taylen Kinney has multiple major Division I offers including Cincinnati, Xavier, Ohio State, and Louisville. 6'8" forward James Turner has multiple mid major offers. Senior guards Jabari Covington and DeShaun Jackson are D-2 level players. 6'3" juniors De-Shawn Anderson and Noah Silverton played key roles a year ago. 6'8" freshman Griffin Starks is a future Division I prospect. This game features elite talent! Richmond Heights lost the only time they played in the OVHC. Newport is making their first appearance and looking to end the Spartans long winning streak!

8:30 Mason vs Taft

The Taft Senators were 21-3 last season, and state champions in 2022. Coach DeMarco Bradley's team is always athletic, tough, and aggressive. The Senators will have a bunch of new faces this year, and also a bunch of long, athletic bodies! Jordyn Buchanan, a 6'5" transfer from Pensacola Florida, has a Division I offer from North Florida. Taft also got a pair of 6'7" local transfers in Damarian Jenkins from Hughes and Kris Smith from Mt. Healthy. 6'5" guard Demilian Walker also returns to give Taft some imposing size. In Coach Adam Toohey's inaugural season at Mason, the Comets were 16-8 in the always tough GMC. Toohey will look to seniors Matt DeBrosse, Ben Menker, Braden Greer, and Luke Kirklin to lead the Comets this year. The Comets will look to their defense and three-point shooting to try and offset the length and size of the Senators.

Saturday: Dec. 2

1:00 p.m. Miami East vs Chaminade Julienne

Miami East was 21-3 a year ago while winning the Three Rivers Conference championship. CJ was 26-3 including a trip to the Final Four in Division II along with a GCL Coed championship. Miami East returns the stars from that team. 6'3" guard Wes Ennis, son of former Penn State football star Curtis Ennis, poured in 22 ppg last year. Fellow senior guard Jacob Roeth, the Coach's son, scored 18 per game. The Washingtons are gone at CJ. George Washington III is a freshman at Michigan. Little brother B.B. and J.J. moved back to Kentucky. But, the Eagles are noted for their tenacious man-to-man defense which hasn't gone anywhere! Seniors Devin Rakestraw, T.J. Donnelly-Tomblin, and Bryce Johnson along with junior David Cartwright return for the Eagles. This is the type of matchup which always entertains at the Ohio Valley Hoops Classic; a high level lower division school (Miami East) taking on a high level larger division team (CJ).

2:45 Erlanger Lloyd (KY) vs Sycamore

This game features perhaps the most intriguing individual matchup of the entire event. Sycamore's 6'10" senior Raleigh Burgess has committed to play for Matt Painter's Purdue Boilermakers. Lloyd's 6'8" junior E.J. Walker has over 26 Division I offers including Ohio State, Xavier, and Dayton. Both players have a high level all-around skill set which will be on display. Sycamore finished 17-7 last season despite losing Burgess to a season ending injury 11 games in. Guard Tariq Kimbrough also returns for the Aves. Lloyd was 19-9 including a regional semifinal loss to fellow OVHC participant Newport. Isaiah Sebastian, Elijah Collins, and Anthony Blaackar all started last season. The teams are evenly matched, and the stars will be trying to make a statement against another star player.

4:30 St. Xavier vs Lakota East

Coach Ryan Fleming will be making his debut as Coach of the Bombers. He has a pair of outstanding juniors to help him get started. Leading scorer Donovan Waleskowski returns. The 6'5" junior is being courted by Division I schools. Fellow junior, 6'9" forward Jacob Wassler is also drawing interest from Division I colleges. 6'5" junior Gordy Sulfsted, a Division I football prospect, also returns giving the Bombers an imposing front line. Coach Clint Adkins' will be leaning on senior point guard Trey Perry to lead the Thunderhawks. The 6'0" senior has several MAC offers along with a Furman offer. Seniors Derek Jackson and Tyler Bachman both logged major minutes last season. This game will feature two well-coached teams who play in extremely tough conferences. It will be a war!

6:15 Alter vs Hilliard Bradley

If you like high level basketball don't miss this one! The game features two of the best coaches in the business in Eric Coulter and Brett Norris, and each team has multiple D-1 prospects. This game will have a Final Four type feeling! Alter got a big boost this summer when A.J. Greer enrolled. The 6'3" junior has offers from UC, Xavier, Michigan and numerous others. Fellow junior Brady Conner, a 6'6" guard, has an offer from Marshall. Charlie Uhl, a 6'7" junior is getting D-I interest, and 6'9" junior Matt Lunne gives the Knights great length. And, for a cherry on top, senior point guard Gavin Leen returns to run the show. For Bradley, the coach's son, 6'3" senior guard Cade Norris, has committed to Illinois State. 6'5" sophomore Gavin Lightning, a transfer from Bowling Green, KY, and 6'1" freshman Ben Mirgon both already hold D-1 offers. Senior sharpshooting guard Jeb Bischoff is a three-year starter. Either of these teams is capable of cutting down nets in March. Both will be facing an opponent that will test them in all areas!

8:00 Kings vs Preble Shawnee

Kings and Preble Shawnee both had outstanding seasons a year ago as the Knights were 18-6, while the Arrows were 23-4 advancing to the regional finals in D-III. Both teams return star players from those squads as they look to go even higher this year. Kings' 6'3" junior guard Tommy Clark has offers from Radford and Southeast Missouri State and interest from numerous others. Shawnee's 6'4" senior guard Mason Shrout has committed to Purdue Fort Wayne. The Knights also return leading scorer Talan Noyes and guard Myles Baker. Both are D-2 prospects. Nate Lyman and Kato Meissner are both D-1 football recruits who bring athleticism and toughness to the Knights. 6'8" Logan Hawley, who is being recruited at the D-2 level, gives Preble Shawnee a strong inside presence to go along with Shrout. Isaac Blankenship and Brayden Robinette also are returning starters for Shawnee. Both teams like to play fast! Expect a high scoring, up-tempo, entertaining game.

Sunday, Dec. 3

2:00 pm Cooper vs Delaware Hayes

This could be one of the more entertaining matchups of the entire event. Delaware Hayes was 20-5 a year ago and returns 4 starters from that team including Jesse Burris, a 6'4" guard who has committed to Ohio University. Carter Piatt-Brown, Chase Griggs, and Jake Lowman all started a year ago. Hayes was already looking for a great year, but the addition of 6'7" junior Landon Vanderwarker has upped those expectations. Vanderwarker has offers from Furman, VCU, and is on the Ohio State radar. His addition makes Hayes a state title contender. The Cooper Jaguars were 9th region runners-up in Kentucky last season losing to Newport by two points in the championship game. The Jaguars feature one of the most exciting players in the OVHC, 5'11" junior Yamil Rondon. Rondon played on the Puerto Rican 17U National Team this summer. 6'6" senior JaShaun Pouncy was injured last season, but his return gives Cooper a stud on the inside. Junior Andy Johnson was a starter a year ago. Sophomore Austin Alexander played in every game as a freshmen. The nephew of NFL great, Shawn Alexander, already has D-1 football offers. This is another Final Four type game between two talented, well-coached teams.

3:45 Rowan County vs Woodward

Coach Jarelle Redden's Woodward Bulldogs have been on a great run the past few years, finishing 19-5 a year ago. Ru Mills, a 6'4" jumping jack, will be one of the more athletic players in this year's event. He poured in 19 points per game last season, including an array of highlight dunks. 6'4" senior Donte Ferrell, a Colorado State football signee, and 6'0" senior point guard Jeremiah Hughes also return for the Bulldogs along with a talented group of sophomores. The Rowan County Vikings from Morehead Kentucky will be making their first ever appearance in the OVHC. Colby Wilburn, a 6'3" senior guard, leads the Vikings who return all five starters. Dashawn Watson and Jayson Ingles were also double figure scorers for Rowan County a year ago.

5:30 Goshen vs Erlanger Lloyd

Goshen won't have the size of Lloyd, but they can light it up from beyond the arc. Guards Caden Zeinner and Conner Moore averaged 20 and 15 respectively a year ago for the 14-9 Warriors. Carter Settelmeyer and Luke Ball also started. Freshman point guard Braylen Settelmeyer is expected to make an immediate impact. (check earlier notes on Lloyd) Look for a high octane game to end the event.

TEACHING teens ABOUT money

5 topics to review with your recent grad

Knowing how to write a check seems obvious, right? Well, not if you've never had to do it. A growing body of research points to a lack of such seemingly basic financial knowledge among today's teens.

Sure, check-writing is becoming rarer as people handle more financial tasks online. But if teens have never learned how to write a check, what bigger, more important financial concepts could their young minds also be missing?

Arming your teens with a foundation of basic money-management skills is important.

Parents: If you're getting ready to send your recent grad off to college, or (eek!) "the real world," now is the time to review some fundamentals. The next page lists just a few of the topics you might want to discuss.

Even if you've had these conversations in the past, it doesn't hurt to brush up. And if your teen responds with the ever-present eye roll, dare him or her to write a check and prove you wrong.
